M. U. MAGAZINE DISCUSSED

Ways and Means Committee Appointed to Start Campaign.

Lots of suggestions were made last night at the meeting of persons interested in starting a literary magazine at the University—suggestions, in the main, of plans for getting the necessary funds, for finding how many of the 500 pledges of interest are worth 50 cents apiece—but no action was taken other than the passing of a motion to leave the matter of collecting to a committee of eight, four men and four women.

The Missouri-Kansas basketball game kept many of the signers from attending the meeting; but those who did attend evinced a considerable interest in the proposed work. The stack of ballots on the table—475 of them by actual count, with some 25 yet to be turned in—many bearing special scribbled messages of the signers' deeper interest in the movement, presented both an encouragement and a problem; encouragement, in that at last a fifth of the whole University enrollment was represented there, and a problem, in that as many of the interest pledges as possible must be turned into cash in order to set the proposed magazine on its feet.

Prof. J. W. Rankin, faculty adviser of the Writers' Club last year, explained the poll and some of the matters that might be taken up. Then the suggestions came.

One plan suggested was for the issuing of membership cards to the signers, the return of which to the treasurer of the Writers' Club with the necessary 50 cents, would enroll the person as a member of the club, with full voting rights and also the right to submit manuscripts for the publication.

Another plan was to appoint a committee of 20 or so to carry on a personal canvass.

A third suggestion was for a general mass meeting at a date that would not conflict with any other meeting, this gathering to be for all the signers and for all other persons interested in the magazine. The matters of editorial direction, officers, issues and the like would be settled there and "promises to pay" would be passed around.

To Give Class in Religious Teaching.

The Rev. T. W. Young, pastor of the Baptist Church, will organize a class in religious instruction next Sunday, for the children and young people of the church. Preparation for church membership will be the object of the class. It will meet once a week until Easter.

Tells of Fertilizers in Bulletin.

"Inspection of Commercial Fertilizers" is the title of a bulletin being issued by the College of Agriculture. It tells how yields are increased on the soil and crop experiment fields of the College of Agriculture by the use of commercial fertilizers.

Picture of 800 in Agricultural Hall.

The picture of the visitors who attended Farmers' Week at the University is finished and will be hung in the Agricultural Building. It is a panorama showing 800 persons and was taken on the ground to the east of Academic Hall.

Here After Round-the-World Trip.

Miss Juliette Thorpe of Madison, Wis., is the guest of Mrs. Eldon James. Miss Thorpe is just returning from London, where she went at the outbreak of the war after a trip around the world.

INELIGIBLES TO RUN FOR K.C.A.C.

Four Old Tigers Will Appear in Invitation Meet.

Four old Missouri track men, who are no longer eligible for competition in collegiate athletics, will run for the Kansas City Athletic Club at the invitation meet to be held in Kansas City February 27. They are Thatcher, Hutzell, Groves and Catron.

The first tryouts for the meet have been held, but Coach Schulte is not ready to announce just who will represent Missouri. A mile relay will be run against Oklahoma or Nebraska, but Schulte has seven men from whom he will pick the team—Murphy, Minton, Magee, Eaton, Porter, Wyatt and Niedorp.

A special hurdle race is being arranged. It is understood that Simpson of Missouri, John P. Nicholson, old Tiger star, and Dan Hazen, former Kansas captain, who opposed "Nick" in his collegiate days, will be among those entered in this race. Floyd will represent Missouri in the pole vault.

ANOTHER STOCKHOLDER SUED

E. C. Anderson, Receiver, Asks $1,000 From Alex D. Petty.

Suit for $1,000 was filed in the Circuit Court this afternoon against Alex D. Petty by E. C. Anderson, receiver for the Columbia Guarantee Abstract Company. The petition says the defendant purchased forty shares of stock worth $1,000 in the abstract company; that he paid $500 cash and gave his note for the rest of the stock, making the money and the note part of the company's assets. The petition further states that later Mr. Petty surrendered his stock and withdrew the $500 with the note.

This is one of several suits that have been filed against stockholders in the abstract company, now defunct.

HERE'S A GOOD JOB FOR YOU
